

Class Projects for Auction 2008

For four years, SJC has included class projects on the Auction bid list. These unique donations have proven to be a huge success. We'd like to continue this tradition this year. Our room mothers are usually busy gathering items for the Class Baskets, so we are hoping that others will take the lead on these fun and rewarding projects. We need:

- ✧ One project per class that will be sold as a single item for our Oral Auction.
- ✧ The students in each class should participate in making the project.
- ✧ Projects should generate interest and enthusiasm among bidders.

Class projects often result in fun and highly spirited bidding wars. Successful project ideas have included quilts with squares from each student; ceramic and wooden pieces decorated by the children; a decorated bookshelf with handprints of each child in the class, complete with their handmade books; keepsake class albums, frames, and journals featuring class photos and thoughts; and memory pillows. Feel free to use these or any other ideas. A list of chosen projects will be listed in the library window.

Please take a moment to fill out the attached form and return it in the Tuesday envelope or to Barbara Hill, who can also answer your questions. Thanks for your support!
